Honorable Chairman, Honorable Speaker and Honorable Members,

I wish you all a very happy new year and Sankranti. I also extend a hearty welcome to all of you to this joint session of the Karnataka Legislature. This is the second session being held in Belgaum, which is very prominent city of Karnataka. This session is also an indication of my Government's commitment to the development of North Karnataka and border areas.

2. The people of Karnataka have given their verdict for stability in administration by voting for my Government overwhelmingly in the recent by-election. The by-election results are an expression of voters 'appreciation and support to the developmental and progressive policies of the Government. I thank the people of Karnataka for their vote of faith in my Government. I believe the responsibilities of my Government have further increased with this verdict of the people.
